

September 21

We join together in prayer as we commemorate The U. N. International Day of Peace

Every year on the International Day of Peace, the United Nations calls on the peoples of the world to remember their common humanity and join together to build a future free of strife. It calls on all of us to observe a day of global ceasefire and non-violence, and to honor a cessation of hostilities for the duration of the Day.

This vear's theme - the Sustainable Goals: Building Blocks Development for Peace - highlights how ending poverty, protecting the planet and ensuring broadly shared prosperity all contribute to global harmony. SDG #16 specifically focuses on "Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions". Yet peace runs like a thread through all 17 of the Goals. When we all work together, we can make peace possible, starting with 24 hours of peace on September 21. Ban Ki-moon

Prayer

God of Nonviolence,

Thank you for the gift of your love and your peace. Give me the grace to live the life of Gospel nonviolence that I might be a faithful follower of the nonviolent Jesus.

Send the Holy Spirit of nonviolence upon me that I will love everyone, from my neighbor to my enemies, that I may see you in everyone, and know everyone as my sister and brother, and never hurt or fear anyone again.

Make me an instrument of your peace, that I might give my life in the struggle for justice and disarmament;

that I may work for the abolition of war, poverty and nuclear weapons;

that I may always respond with love and never retaliate with violence;

that I may accept suffering in the struggle of justice and never inflict suffering or death on others;

that I my live more simply, in solidarity with the world's poor, that I may defend the poor and resist systemic injustice and institutionalized violence, that I may always choose life and resist the forces of death.

Guide me on the Way of nonviolence.

Help me to speak the truth of peace, to practice boundless compassion, to radiate unconditional love, to forgive everyone who ever hurt me, to embody your nonviolence, to walk with you in contemplative peace, to be your beloved servant and friend.

Disarm my heart, and I shall be your instrument to disarm other hearts and the world.

Lead me, God of nonviolence, with the whole human family, into your nonviolent reign of justice and peace where there is no more war, no more injustice, no more poverty, no more nuclear weapons, no more violence. I ask this in the name of the nonviolent Jesus, our brother and our peace.

Amen.
